

As I've been arguing throughout President Trump's four years in office and to this day,

"The Jews' relationship with Israel is different and a lot stronger than any other people to their respective countries on the planet. Israel is the Jews' 'being'; their 'definition in the world'; their 6,000 years history; the foundation of their religion. If Israel doesn't exist, the Jews will lose 99% of their identity. It is my (fact based) observation that President Trump has done more for Israel and as an extension for the Jews in the world than anyone (Jew or no Jew) since Ben Gurion. Because of that, a Jew simply didn't have the human right to oppose President Trump. A Jew could like him, hate him, object any part of his appearance and/or style, ---but a Jew had to support him because of what he was doing for Israel. Therefore an anti-Trump Jew living anywhere in the world without American affiliation could be qualified as 'too dumb and/or too ignorant to understand reality' or 'uninformed' or 'living in la-la land'; a Jew without American affiliation had no tool in his/her hand to de-facto influence the outcome of the 2020 presidential election.

An American Jew on the other hand did; he/she had the right to vote in the election. It is safe to argue that any Jew who voted against Donald Trump in 2020 had forever lost his/her right to be called a "Jew." Let me be more precise: Jews who did this forever lost their rights to "pray for Israel" on Sabbath and other holidays, because they have proven: they are anti-Israel. They are against the Jewish Historical Homeland. By voting against Pres. Trump a Jew in N.Y., Dallas, Chicago or elsewhere didn't risk anything with his/her spineless vote; he/she put Israel, the Jewish Homeland and by extension the existence of the world's Jews into grave danger. Iran won't bomb or commit terrorist attacks against Jews in Dallas or Atlanta; Iran will do it in Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. "That" makes anti-Trump American Jews exceptionally dumb and exceptionally disgusting.

So let's see what President Trump has done for the Jews, to see "the platform" of what the anti-Trump Jews were standing/voting on:

- Recognized Jerusalem as Israel's Capital
- Recognized the Golan Heights as part of Israel
- Moved the US Embassy to Jerusalem
- He was the first US President ever visiting the Western Wall
- His Secretary of State and his Ambassador were the first ever visiting the Western Wall
- Protected Israel in the UN
- The first leader President Trump had meeting with in the UN General Assembly (2017) was PM Netanyahu
- Cornered the PLO, cut their funding
- By signing the Abraham Accord, two Arab states (Bahrain and UEA) recognized Israel
- Sudan recognized Israel in 2020
- Morocco reestablished relationship with Israel in 2020
- In an Executive order, he adapted the "International Holocaust Remember" definition to anti-Semitism. The Executive Order strongly reaffirms the statutory anti-discrimination protections of Title VI, which prohibit race, color, and national origin discrimination in programs and activities receiving federal financial assistance. The Executive Order emphasizes that the executive branch will "enforce Title VI against prohibited forms of discrimination rooted in anti-Semitism"
- Signed Executive order to protect Jewish schools and properties
- Left Obama's Iran Nuclear pact
- By bankrupting Iran stopped terrorist financing
- Killed Qasem Soleimani
- Sold weapons to the UEA and Saudi Arabia

- Worked on the meeting between PM Netanyahu and Prince bin Salman preparing a deal between Saudi Arabia and Israel
- Stopped the PLO in their “pay-for-slay”
- Supported Israel’s right to develop new areas in the West Bank
- Signed a US/Israel agreement to strengthen the two countries cooperation around the world
- They extended US/Israel scientific cooperation to the Golan and West Bank. This opened funding (BSF, BIRD, BARD) in the area previously was not possible
- His government opposed “the threat what the International Criminal Court (ICC) presents for Israel”
- The US government under Pres. Trump declared the Boycott, Divestment, Sanctions (DBS) movement anti-Semitic and barred any group participating from government funding.

It is very far from the complete list; these are however those anyone can verify using Google. Yeah... you can say the anti-Trump Jews had a lot of reasons opposing the only US president in more than seven decades who went out of his way to protect their homeland, identity, religion; their core being.

How is that saying? “You cannot fix stupid”

Jews should abandon the party that’s abandoned them

With the Biden-Harris administration’s epic failures from skyrocketing inflation and gas prices to the wide-open southern border, record crime and weakness abroad, American voters are turning away from the Democratic Party in staggering numbers.

Even the Democrats’ most reliable constituencies are heading for the exits in droves: Support for the White House has been steadily — and dramatically — eroding among black, Hispanic, women and younger voters.

One demographic group that has been stubbornly faithful to the Democrats but should join the others in rethinking its support is Jewish voters. Historically liberal, most Jewish Americans have long voted Democrat, confounding Republican presidents who provided extraordinary support to Israel and other issues important to the Jewish community.

Consider President Donald Trump’s innovative policy approach, which flipped the script in the Middle East in critical ways and delivered greater stability and peace.

After decades of presidents of both parties promising to move the US embassy to Jerusalem, Trump had the courage to actually do it.

He reversed the Obama-Biden pro-Iran appeasement policies that strengthened the hand of Israel’s — and the world’s — gravest threat to peace. His maximum-pressure campaign of withdrawing the United States from the dangerous nuclear agreement and imposing crippling sanctions countered Iran's influence and pressured the regime to abandon some of its malign activities. Further, he eliminated ISIS and Iran's chief terrorist leader as he worked to decimate Islamist enemies in the region.

Trump brokered the historic Abraham Accords that normalized relations between Israel and the United Arab Emirates, Bahrain, Morocco and Sudan, leading to growing strategic ties and regional stability.

The Trump administration cut aid to Palestinian governing bodies with leaders who refused to negotiate with Israel and recognized the strategically vital Golan Heights as part of Israel.

At the United Nations — where Israel-bashing is de rigueur and the Jewish state is singled out for unfair treatment more than any other nation — Trump removed America from the Human Rights Council due to the group's blatant bias and ensured that the US delegation stood unequivocally with our ally.

Under Trump — unlike during the Obama years — the United States stopped rebuking Israel for its settlements in the West Bank and quit condemning Israel for simply defending itself from terrorist attacks targeting civilians.

The Trump administration was a strong opponent of the shamelessly anti-Semitic BDS (boycott, divestment and sanctions) movement — supported by three out of four House Democrats known as “the Squad” — which seeks to isolate Israel and destroy its economy.

Standing up for religious freedom and against religious persecution and offsetting the UN's (and former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton's) singular focus on the largely manufactured threat of “Islamophobia,” the Trump administration hosted a Summit on Combatting Anti-Semitism. Trump also signed an executive order giving Jews greater legal protections against persecution.

Democrats routinely smeared Trump as “Hitler” and “anti-Semitic.” It was a false and disgusting trope, even as the Democratic Party drifted further from bipartisan support against anti-Semitism and for Israel. Reports suggested that Trump was responsible for a rise in hate crimes — ignoring the fact that for the previous eight years under Obama-Biden, attacks on Jews were among the top three hate crimes (although they rarely made headlines).

Biden, meanwhile, has largely followed his fellow Democrats in moving away from strong, steadfast support for Israel. Many in the party (most prominently Rep. Ilhan Omar) openly embrace anti-Semitic rhetoric and policies, and the failure of Democratic leaders to condemn both is disturbing.

Worse, Biden is trying desperately to reanimate the dangerous Iran nuclear deal, which would facilitate Tehran's nuclear ambitions and undercut our Arab allies (and their burgeoning relationships with Jerusalem) while endangering Israel's very existence.

While it's clear that the new Democratic Party has turned its back on both American Jews and Israel in significant ways, Jewish voters continue to reward its candidates. Despite his extraordinary record, Trump lost ground with them in the 2020 election. In a recent interview, Trump lamented the political reality: “The Jewish people in the United States either don’t like Israel or don’t care about Israel.”

Most Jewish voters chose Biden and vote Democrat for various reasons, but they should seriously consider joining other traditional Democrat voting blocs in abandoning the party. It’s long past time for Jewish voters to end their longstanding — but unrequited — loyalty to the Democrats, who clearly no longer care about their concerns.
