

It doesn't happen often that such a crystal-clear case can be made because the underlying facts are so wholly transparent and so few people notice it. This short statement encapsulates the entire Biden presidency. It took the "Real Media" (in this context I mean 15% of the US "Media" outside of the "Grand National Sewage Canal" where the other 85% exist; at the bottom of the sewage are FaceBook, Twitter and other garbage dispensers, The Atlantic, New York Times, MSNBC and CNN. All others are just swimming in there) a year to even ask the "Who is running the Biden show anyway?" question and no one has found the answer to date. So let me help.

The Media has been puzzled by a lot of conflicting issues, including "Biden was running as a moderate now he is a far left lunatic", or "Biden campaigned on uniting the country, he has been dividing the country." It has never been a secret how Biden took the black population as a "given voting block"; he catered to them in campaigns, otherwise patronized them and looked down on them.

Harmon Carey, director of the Afro-American Historical Society in Wilmington said upon Biden authoring the 1994 crime bill that exponentially accelerated incarceration especially black incarceration in the country: "Joe's a decent fella, but he was doing what his white constituents wanted. The white people wanted to send people to prison. They wanted cops. And that's what he did." In 2007 Biden said about Obama: "I mean, you got the first mainstream African-American who is articulate and bright and clean and a nice-looking guy. I mean, that's a storybook, man." Throughout his career as senator he teamed up with segregationists such as Sen. James Eastland and anti civil-right champions such as Sen. Strom Thurmond. Biden as a Senate Judiciary Committee chair orchestrated and executed the "high-tech lynching" of Justice Thomas in 1991. Now the Media is lost in the "Joe Biden as a black advocate" concept.

It obviously hasn't helped that people who read, think for themselves and follow what's happening knew for fact that Biden is not the brightest bulb in the chandelier. It over time evolved into the "Biden is an idiot" assessment. These assumptions have been greatly supported by statements such as "Don't underestimate Joe's ability to fuck things up" (Obama), or "Biden has been wrong about nearly every major foreign policy and national security issue over the past four decades" (Robert Gates, Secretary of Defense), or the historical fact that Biden was the only person in the entire top echelon in the Obama government who opposed the bin Laden raid. Then, the moment Biden was out of his basement became clear: he has a serious level of dementia.

As a summary, the United States has someone in the Oval Office who

- Campaigned on "calming" the country, now everyone asks, "why does he despise the country?"
- Campaigned as a "friend of the police and law and order", --has been running the most anti-police and most lawless system since Obama
- Used to be moderate, now acts as a far-left lunatic
- Campaigned as uniter now works as a divider
- Used to disregard blacks now he is a black advocate
- From being a "moderate" has become a "fighter" for the transgender community
- Kept two things throughout his career intact: he always turned with the winds and lied at every chance he got
- Has never been smart enough to do these U-turns on his own; now as an added factor he has dementia

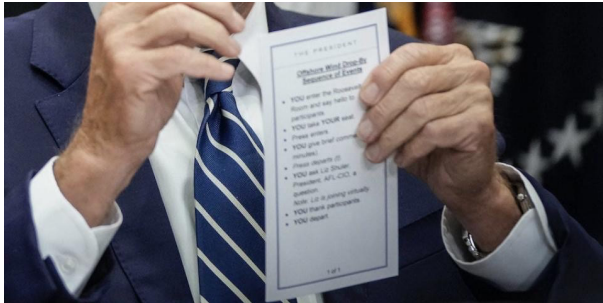

Townhall wrote on August 12 in its piece titled "American Stasi" upon US Gestapo Oberst-Gruppenführer Merrick Garland ordered his FBI goons to raid the home of the former President of The United States: "...The third and final conclusion is the most terrifying: The Biden Regime has demonstrated its willingness, and indeed its eagerness, to take America to hitherto unprecedented depths of depravity -- and it has done so for the very simple reason that it can...."

The Third

August 15, 2022

So, the sixty-four thousand dollars question remains for the Media: “How is an inherently dumb person having dementia capable of figuring out and executing several U-turn maneuvers and have the guts to stand front of the camera and lie about them?”

Well, the answer is simple (once you know it) and has two-parts of it. First and foremost, it from day one has not been Joe’s show, and second, he isn’t orchestrating the U-turns. He reads the texts manifesting the U-turn from a teleprompter while he is instructed on an Instruction Card what to do and how to behave.

As a terrific example how Joe (and his dementia) has been managed he by accident flipped his Instruction Card and showed it to the cameras on June 24th, 2022.

The full list of the instructions reads:

- "YOU enter the Roosevelt Room and say hello to participants."
- "YOU take YOUR seat. "
- "Press enters."
- "YOU give brief comments [...]"
- "Press departs."
- "YOU ask Liz Shuler, President, AFL-CIO, a question. Note: Liz is joining virtually."
- "YOU thank participants."
- "YOU depart."

We are having someone in the Oval Office who must be told to “say hello” and “take your seat.”

Obviously the two-parts of the answer referred above must have a common denominator in a sense of

“The very same person who is running the show must be the one who instructs Joe which room to enter, what camera to turn to and where is the teleprompter to read.”

To find this common denominator we must turn to the age-old “Cui Bono” (to whom is it a benefit?). And that person is Barack Hussein Obama.

With Joe in the Oval Office, his first and only four years is B. Hussein’s third term. The US presidency under Joe has become a three-ring circus

- Obama
- Obama cronies around Joe
- Biden people

My prediction on election day by now has become a painful fact: “The United States of America does not have a government.” Any and all “decision” Joe signs or says is the result of who in the three-ring circus won the circular shouting, undermining, backstabbing game with regards to a particular matter on a particular day.

It took time but I collated most top WH officials’ name and background (at the end of this paper):

- There are 16 Executive Offices and Councils in the WH; all but four have direct ties to Barack Hussein Obama (only one of the four -OMB- has any kind of significance); they all are Obama cronies.
- Every single one among the WH Officers in any meaningful title or function is an Obama crony.

The Third

August 15, 2022

- Only three secretaries of the eleven major Departments running the country do not have documented history of being a direct Obama crony: Deb Haaland (Interior); an ultra-progressive, great supporter of Green New Deal and Medicare For All; Xavier Becerra (HHS); one of “the” worst most spineless political actors in the entire US history; and Marcia Fudge (HUD)

Antony Blinken (State Department), Janet Yellen (Treasury), Lloyd Austin (Defense), Merrick Garland (Justice), Pete Buttigieg (Transportation), Jennifer Granholm (Energy), Miquel Cardona (Education), Alejandro Mayorkas (Homeland Security) had major Obama affiliations.

It could be argued beyond any doubt that the entire Biden administration works for Barack Hussein Obama. In this three-ring circus the Biden people are the small minority; Obama gives direction, and his cronies execute it. The Obama cronies occupy a wide spectrum (between “left of center” and “progressive left-wing lunatic” points) within the political left; the direction is set by Obama, but the various factions of cronies differ on execution. This is why the WH constantly changing stance on major issues; it only depends which faction won that day.

There is a terminology spy agencies such as the CIA are using: “tradecraft.” It means that the person or organization’s behavior and actions strongly suggests spy activities. Established “tradecrafts” usually lead to result.

We should review Obama’s tradecrafts then compare them with Biden’s (detailed above);

- Lying into the country’s face with impunity
- Hating the country (that Obama spelled out in Cairo)
- Dividing the country (rich against poor, black against white, illegal immigrants against legal, blacks against everybody, anti-family, war between genders, everybody against police)
- Anti-police, anti-military
- Degrading the VA
- Robbing the country blind in an arrogant “I can do this and you cannot do a thing about it” fashion (Solyndra? anyone?, GM’s stock holders robbed blind, gave the stock to the unions?...anyone?)
- Creating protected class and protecting them (Eric Holder? anyone?)
- Hating the oil/gas industry (XL pipeline? Rings the bell?)
- Weaponizing the Justice Dept. and the IRS (Lois Lerner? Anyone? IRS goons descending on major GOP donors’ homes and businesses? anyone?)
- Open borders for illegals; inventing the term of “undocumented aliens”
- Degrading American industries on behalf of China and other countries
- Running the economy into the ground on behalf of “climate change”
- By lowering the level of drug enforcement, assisting criminal gangs to flood the country with drugs

If we compare the “Biden ‘administration’ tradecrafts” with Obama’s we can conclude that the two tradecrafts are virtually identical. If we add Biden’s inherent low IQ, ongoing dementia and Obama’s cleaver, slime gangsterism we will have the answer to two questions: who is running the country and why Joe is doing the opposite as president compared to what he was saying during the campaign.

The country has been run through his cronies by Obama from day one;
Biden didn’t make the U-turns; he just read them from a paper they gave him.

Every single Media report talking about what the Biden administration did or didn’t do is false. It is not the Biden administration, it is the “third Obama administration.”

If you get down to it, this is a far better position for Obama than when he was president. The entire country is burning, everybody hates everybody, the deficit is going through the roof, police and military have been degraded, lawlessness rules almost all major cities, “the” most major topic is “gender equality”, illegal immigrants have been flooding the country, the US is distrusted by every allies and regarded as a bad joke by every foes, inflation has been running through the roof, unemployment number is low because workers' participation index is at its historical low point (otherwise the US unemployment is close to 8%); ---100% of these were practiced by Obama when he was president, but the country knew who did it; now he can do it with impunity. He cannot be happier.

Everything I wrote above is documented. And -just to end this material on a high note...- here is a prediction: Obama has been working behind the scenes using his third term to run the country into the ground; the worse it gets the better is for the Obamas. Why? Let's turn to "Cui Bono?" again. I'd give better than 60% chance that Michelle's name will surface around November, 2023 and will be seriously considered as a democratic candidate for 2024 as "the" only person who can get the country out of the ditch. And why not? As it has been proven over and over again "60% of every society is an unable to think and comprehend moron" ---whatever the Obamas are selling, this country's 60% will buy. Never mind Obama divided this country to a degree no one knows when -if ever- will we get back to pre 2008 times as far as our society is concerned. Michelle (or anyone with Obama last name, friend, former colleague or relative to Obama) will not fix any of this. But hey! we voted a qualified, proven lunatic to be our president, so why not? As Churchill said "Every country has a government it deserves." Boy oh boy, Sir Winston was right on the money.
